LOCAL NEWS.

Quarterly meeting will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Northrop of Buffalo, N. Y., are in town, the guest of his mother.

Mr. W. H. Brewster returned home, Tuesday, from his trip to Connecticut and New York city.

Mr. G. W. Fasset has established himself in business as a tinsmith in the shop under the Allen block.

Mr. S. G. Holyoke of St. Albans, a prominent sheep-breeder of that section, was in town Wednesday.

Mr. Darwin Elder, who went to Boston and Hartford, where his horse Archy has been, is home again.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tupper went, Saturday, to Manchester, N. H., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Murkland, and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Fleming have returned from Washington, Pa., where they had been for several months with friends.

Mrs. G. C. Leavenworth of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in town Saturday to visit her parents, Hon. and Mrs. L. D. Eldredge.

The docket for the December term of the county court has been issued. The cases number 133—113 court and 20 chancery.

Mr. J. W. Martin, who went West about five weeks ago to visit friends and look after his property at Milwaukee, is back home.

Not a single Addison county case appears on the docket of the general term of the Supreme court to be held at Montpelier this month.

Mrs. Alexander of Akron, Ohio, mother of Mrs. C. B. Wright, is visiting Prof. and Mrs. Wright. A younger daughter accompanies her.

Mr. C. B. Southard, a prominent Boston lawyer, and his wife and daughter were guests at Col. T. M. Chapman's the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah E. Dewey left home on Monday for California, where they will remain till next May. They go to see the country and to visit friends.

Mr. John A. Fletcher of the senior class of the college, who has been during the summer with his brother Paris on a ranch in Montana, reached home Sunday morning.

Mr. J. S. Phelps of Washington, D. C., has returned to that city after spending several days with old friends here. He is private secretary to Secretary of War Endicott.

Hon. H. H. Hale of St. Paul, Minn., is a guest at Mr. G. C. Chapman's. Mr. Hale formerly practiced law in this county, but has resided in the West for many years.

Prof. Granville Yager's family, which consists of his wife, a daughter and a son, came to Middlebury with him on his return from their late home, Townsend, Mass., Monday.

A hunt on a large scale has been organized and will come off to-day if nothing happens to prevent. The leaders of the contending forces are Messrs. J. W. Pitts and A. B. Colby.

Mr. Joel O. Stevens of New York city, with his wife and daughter, is at the Addison House for a few days. The family have spent their summers in town for a number of years.

The three-cornered plot of ground nearly in front of Mr. Beckwith's residence has been filled in and will be graded and grassed. Postmaster Peck is prime mover in the enterprise, which is a very commendable one.

Messrs. Oscar A. Burton of Burlington and C. H. Brownell of Essex Junction came to town, Wednesday, and started out among the sheep men. They were in pursuit of sheep to be sent to Mr. Burton's ranch in Kansas.

The first snow of the season fell here Saturday morning. It was limited in quantity, but with the low temperature that accompanied it gave a foretaste of the coming winter that was more suggestive than agreeable.

Buyers reported butter a little "off" Monday. The prices paid ranged from 20 to 25 cents, the latter figure only for the very best, however. A large amount was offered, and more people were in town than on any previous market day this fall.

Mr. Hammond of the board of selectmen has done a commendable thing in straightening up the cemetery near Mr. Manfred Foote's, which is the property of the town. It had become filled with weeds, underbrush and rubbish, and many of the stones had fallen over.

Mr. George W. Bennett, the decorator, who has spent the greater part of the summer at the capital at work on the State buildings, is in town for a short stay. He goes from here to Bellows Falls to decorate the new town hall which Smith &amp; Allen of this place are building there.

Mrs. Sarah M. Fletcher, widow of the late Paris Fletcher of Bridport, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Wright, in this village, Tuesday morning, aged 58 years. She had been ill for a number of years and for many months past had gradually failed. The funeral was attended from the house yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Speare officiating. The interment was at Bridport.

Messrs. Lee and Albert Phelps and Willis Bryant of this place and Mr. W. D. Sturtevant of Weybridge have recently entered upon a course of study at the Albany Business college, Albany, N. Y. These young men will prove earnest students, and will be a credit to the institution. They report the college as having a very large attendance.

Mr. Allan Calhoun's men have just finished putting in plumbing and steam-heating apparatus at the State house and in the new State library building at Montpelier. Next Monday he goes to Bellows Falls to begin work at the new town hall there, which is to be fitted up with the best arrangements of the kind. It is a large contract. These outside jobs and his home business keep Mr. Calhoun very busily employed.

A hearing was had at the court house, Tuesday, before the special master, Hon. Aldace F. Walker of Rutland, in the case of Frederick Kopper against John M. Dyer and the cross cause, Dyer against Kopper. The point involved in the litigation, which has been going on for more than a year, is the title to the Lake Dunmore hotel property. Messrs. Guy C. Noble of St. Albans, Geo. Briggs of Brandon and J. M. Slade appeared for Mr. Kopper and Messrs. Stewart &amp; Wilds for Mr. Dyer.

The Ladies' library has lately received a number of new books, among them the following: "Louis Agassiz," by Mrs. Agassiz; "At Bay" and "Second Life," Mrs. Alexander; "White Heather," Wm. Black; "Barbara Heathcote," "For Lillias," "The Roman Singer," F. W. Crawford; "Little Country Girl," Susan Coolidge; "Her Majesty's Tower," W. H. Dixon; "Woman's Inheritance," A. M. Douglas; "Boots and Saddles," Mrs. Custer; "A Short Life" and "Daddy Darwin's Dovecote," Juliana Ewing; "Poverty Corner," Manville Fenn; "Andromache," George Fleming; "Oldham" and "Loveday's History," Lucy E. Kingsley; "Criss-Cross," Grace Litchfield; "Marsh Island" and "Mate of the Daylight," Miss Jewett; "An Old Maid's Paradise," Miss Phelps; "Life of Louis Pasteur"; "Society in London"; "Sweet Cicely"; "Nature's Serial Story" and "Driven Back to Eden," E. P. Roe.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The board of directors of this organization will hold a meeting at the Van Ness House, Burlington, on the evening of Wednesday, the 27th inst., and the annual meeting of the society will be held at the same place at 9 a. m. of Thursday, the 28th.

HOUSE BURNED.

A house on the road from Mr. W. P. Nash's to Beach hill in New Haven was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. It was occupied by Michael Mack, who, we believe, was the owner. No particulars are obtainable.

THE WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS.

As heretofore announced, the Vermont branch of the Woman's board of Missions will hold its annual meeting in Middlebury on Wednesday of next week. There will be two sessions, beginning at 9 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. The indications are that the attendance, comprising members from all parts of the State, will be large. Addresses are expected from Mrs. Gates of India, Miss Graves of Samokov, Mrs. Emily R. Montgomery of Marash and Miss Martha J. Gleason of Constantinople and perhaps Mrs. Capron of India. The meetings are to be held in the Congregational church. The arrangements first made for the reception on Tuesday evening will be carried out. It will be given at the residence of Mr. G. S. Wainwright.

THE STATE SABBATH-SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

The 18th annual convention of this association is to be held in the Congregational church at Chester on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. A number of prominent workers in the various denominations are to deliver addresses. Rev. Mr. Speare of Middlebury is down on the programme for an address on "Christian Endeavor" at 3 p. m. Wednesday. Free return checks will be furnished all who pay full fare in going.

MIDDLEBURY Y. M. C. A.

The address at the meeting in the Y. M. C. A. hall, last Sunday afternoon, was given by Rev. Mr. Speare.

On Tuesday evening the class in penmanship, taught by Mr. W. H. Bond, was organized and took its first lesson. There are 22 members in the class, which is to meet every Tuesday evening till the course is completed.

Wednesday evening State Secretary Avery gave an interesting talk to a large audience on Y. M. C. A. work. He went hence, yesterday, to Lowell, Mass., to attend the Massachusetts State associations meeting, and on the 1st of November he will go to Providence, R. I., to give a series of bible readings.

This evening comes the lecture on

"Bees", by Mr. J. E. Crane, who is sure to both instruct and entertain his hearers. Next Sunday afternoon the secretary will give a report of the recent meeting of the associations of the State at Barre. On Monday evening next the class in book-keeping, to be taught by Rev. Mr. Carpenter, will be formed.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors, for their kindness in helping us in the hour of death, and to Mr. G. C. Chapman and also Mrs. C. A. Chapman for the flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM KENWORTHY.

Died.

MANCHESTER.—In Cornwall, Oct. 18, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Park, Mrs. Adeline Willard, wife of the late James Manchester, aged 75 years and two months.

KENWORTHY.—In Middlebury, Oct. 14, 1886, Alfred R., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kenworthy, aged five years and three months.

Horses: Their Feed and Their FEET. A Manual of Horse Hygiene, invaluable for the veteran or the novice, pointing out the causes of "malaria," "glaucoma," "pink eye," "distemper," etc., and how to prevent and counteract them. By Dr. F. A. With a treatise and notes on shoeing by Geo. Cox and Col. M. C. WELD. 156 pp. 12mo. paper, 50 cents; extra cloth, 75 cents. This book gives in a condensed form that is valuable to the care of horses, that not before been published. The subject is considered from a new and original standpoint, and stated in a plain, practical, common-sense manner, showing how by proper care we may add many valuable years of usefulness to our horses. Unlike most books issued on this subject, it does not add any medicines.
